the first annual Gary Diocese

RED MASS

The Most Reverend Dale J. Melczek, Bishop of the Gary Diocese Celebrant

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2010

8:00 A.M.

OUR LADY OF CONSOLATION

8303 TAFT STREET

MERRILLVILLE, INDIANA 46410

Breakfast Reception immediately following at Vamos Hall

The Red Mass tradition began about 1310 A.D. and got its name from the Red robes worn by the priest and judges who attended Mass together at the annual opening term of Court. Today the Red Mass brings members of the bar, government officials, the judiciary, and all those who work for justice in our world together to reflect and seek inspiration from God to guide them in the coming year's efforts. People of all faiths are welcome.
